JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

A DYING WIFE TO HER HUSBAND.

The following beautiful and touching extracts are taken from a letter written by a dying wife to her husband, which was found by him, some time after her death, between the leaves of a religious volume, which she was very fond of perusing. The letter, which was literally dim with tear marks, was written long before the husband was aware that the grasp of a fatal disease had fastened upon the lovely form of his devoted wife, who died, it is stated, at the early age of nineteen. It shows how fathomless is the depth of a true woman's affections:

"When this shall reach your eye, dear G., some day when you are turning over the relics of the past, I shall have passed away forever, and the cold, white stone be keeping its lonely watch over the ills you have so often pressed, and the sod will be growing that shall hide forever from your sight the dust of one who has so often nestled close to your warm heart. For many long and sleepless nights, when all my thoughts were at rest, I have wrestled with the consciousness of approaching death, until at last it has forced itself upon my mind; and although to you and to others it might seem but the nervous imagination of a girl, yet dear G., it is not so. Many weary, weary hours have I passed in the endeavor to reconcile myself to leaving you, whom I love so well, and this bright world of sunshine and beauty; and hard indeed it is to struggle on silently alone, with the sure conviction that I am about to leave you forever and go down alone in the dark valley! 'But I know in whom I have trusted,' and leaning upon His arm, "I fear no evil." Don't blame me for keeping all this even from you. How could I subject you, of all others, to such sorrow as I feel at parting, when time will soon make it apparent to you? I could have wished to live, if only to be at your side when your time shall come, and pillowing your head upon my breast, wipe the death damps from your brow, and usher your departing spirit into the Maker's presence, embalmed in woman's holiest prayer. But it is not to be so—and I submit.

Yours is the privilege of watching through long and dreary nights for the spirit's final flight, and transferring my sinking head from your breast to the Saviour's bosom! And you shall share my last thought; the last faint pressure of this hand, and the last feeble kiss shall be yours; and even when flesh and heart shall have failed me, my eye shall rest on yours until glazed by death—and our spirits shall hold one last communion, until gently fading from my view—the last of the earth—you shall mingle with the first bright glimpses of the unfading glories of that better world, where partings are unknown. Will do I know the spot dear G., where you will lay me; often have we stood by the place, and, as we watched the mellow sunset as it glanced in quivering flashes through the leaves and brightening the grassy mounds around us with stripes of burnished gold, each has thought that one of us would come alone; and, whichever it might be, your name would be on the stone. But you loved the spot, and I know you'd love me none the less when you see the same quiet sunlight lingering and play among the grass that covers your Mary's grave. I know you will go often alone, when I am laid there, and my spirit will be with you then, and whisper among the waving branches: "I am not lost, but gone before."

CURIOUS FACTS.—One of the great natural phenomena of the bee-hive is the massacre of the drones. It was one time asserted that the worker-bees did not use their stings against the stingless males, but merely pushed them out to die. This idea, however resulted from the massacre being always committed at the bottom of the hive, whither the poor drones retire in cluster in July and August, as if aware of the doom impending over them. As usual, by one of his ingenious expedients, Huber discovered the truth. Six swarms where put on glass tables, beneath which the watchers placed themselves. "This contrivance," says Huber" succeeded to admiration. On the 4th of July, we saw the workers actually massacre the males, in the whole six swarms at the same hour, and with the same peculiarities. The glass table was covered with bees full of animation, which flew up to the drones as they came from the bottom of the hive, seized them by the antennæ the limbs and the wing, and having dragged them about, so to speak, after quartering them, they killed them by repeated stings directed between the rings of the belly. The moment that this formidable weapon reached them, was the last of their existence—they stretched their wings and expired. At the same time, if the workers did not consider them as dead, as they appeared to us, they still stuck the sting so deep that it could hardly be withdrawn; and these bees were obliged to turn around upon themselves with a screw-like motion before the stings could be disengaged. Next day we witnessed new scenes of carnage. During three hours the bees furiously destroyed the males. They had massacred all their own on the preceding day, but now attacked those which driven from the neighboring thives had taken refuge among them. The following days no drones remained in the hives."

GOD BLESS THE WOMEN AND BABIES.—They were once so scarce in California that as a woman walked on the street men would stop and stare at her as at an angel. Babies were so scarce that once in a theatre in San Francisco, where a mother had taken her child, it began to cry just as the orchestra struck up; a fellow in the pit shouted: "Stop those fiddles and let the baby cry. I haevn't heard such a sound for ten years." The audience applauded the sentiment, the orchestra stopped, and the baby continued its performance amid universal and unbounded enthusiasm!

AN OLD CHICKEN.—In attempting to carve a fowl one day, a gentleman found considerable difficulty in seperating its joints and exclaimed against the man who had sold him an old hen for a young chicken.

"My dear," said the enraged man's wife, "don't talk so much about the age and respectable Mr. B.; he planted the first hill of corn that was planted in our town."

"I know that," said the husband, "and I believe this hen scratched it up."

The curious discovery has been made by an English surgeon that monkeys cannot be poisoned with strychnine. They seem to eat all kinds of poison with impunity.

HAVING PURCHASED THE STOCK AND fixtures of W. A. Monegan, Tobacconist, I propose to continue it in its various departments at the old stand, and would be pleased to see the former patrons of Mr. Monegan together with my friends and acquaintances and I promise to furnish them with the best smoke or chew that can be procured in the City.

Mine is the only establishment in North Carolina that you can procure the celebrated brands of Gravely chewing tobacco. Being confined exclusively to the segar and tobacco business, enables me to offer more superior goods and at lower prices than can be had elsewhere in Raleigh, small dealer will find it to their interest to call an examine my stock as I can beat the State in prices and in a line of goods suitable to the wants of their customers.

All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.
Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:
PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.
The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where kerosene Oil is used.

JUDGE CLOUD COMPENSATED FOR THE LOSS OF HIS NEGROES.

There are many people who expect to be compensated for their slaves by the government, especially in Kentucky, Missouri and the border States. In Kentucky, Tennessee and other States many slaveholders went into the Federal army and gave up their lives for the "Union and the flag," the Union which guaranteed to them their slave property. To liberate the slaves of those who fought to the death for the Union, is rather harsh treatment for "the best government the world ever saw," to exercise towards its friends and defenders.

We have often heard "unrepentent, contumacious" rebels rejoice that slave holders, who fought on the Federal side, lost their slaves as well as others who did not. They call it proper punishment for confiding in Massachusetts and the rest of New England.

Judge Cloud threatened to cowhide one of his neighbours, in 1865, if he should tell his slaves that they were free, in obedience to orders issued from the Post Commander at Dobson.

On the 12th of March, inst., the Code Commission, Rodman, Tourgee and Victor Barringer, made a report, addressed to "Mars Todd," Speaker of the Senate, to be laid before that body, eulogizing themselves and their work, and telling Judge Cloud, in common with all slave-holders, that they were now in a great measure compensated for their slaves, which they called property. We would undergo the mortal punishment of riding "Old Nig," that tall stage horse, all the way to Dobson, to see his Honor read the report, eating apples on the bench, and looking through old Frank Blair's spectacles, and then hear Jo Dobson and Dick Reaves shake the Blue Ridge with their hearty laugh at him. If Judge Rodman and the code stood by, we verily believe his Honor would not be restrained, but make them feel the sentiments of the cowhide with which he threatened the man who should first acquaint his slaves that they were free.

If there is anything Judge Cloud does curse, it is Jo Turner, the presentment of the Grand Jury of Orange, and the new code, eulogised by the Commissioners that got it up. The Judge curses us, and says Tourgee ought to put us in jail, but we don't mind that, we bear no malice, and we know "curses, like young chickens, will go home to roost." We say, the Lord forgive the Governor and the Judge for their profanity, for we feel most heartily sorry for the ugly habit of theirs.

To show the Judge that we bear no malice, we have mailed him a copy of the report, carefully marking that portion which says he is compensated for his slaves by the code and other works of the Commission. We have but two copies of this report, one we send to Judge Cloud the other we copy from, as follows:

"We have also at this session submitted a code of criminal procedure.

The bill which we prepared, regulating the duties of the various public officers throughout the State, met your approbation and is part of our law.

These acts, with many others, such as those concerning the settlement of the estates of deceased persons, guardian and ward, landlord and tenant, fences, draining low land, &c., prescribing just rules and convenient modes of procedure on all these important subjects, form a body of law, the enactment of which will, for at least a century to come mark an era in our history. We may be permitted to believe that this body of law, by the certainty and economy it has introduced into the administration of justice, has saved, and will save, millions of dollars which would otherwise have been spent in unnecessary legislation, and will go far to compensate the people of North Carolina for all their losses of property in the late disastrous war. This General Assembly may appeal to those statutes as a vindication from any charges that may be made against it because of prolonged and expensive sessions.

It will be a source of pride to you, in which we may be permitted to share, that your names are forever connected with such just and useful legislation."

We will now see if the people do not express satisfaction at the Code Commission, and feel a gratifying sensation of having gotten, not only the worth of the money paid to the Commissioners, but also the loss they sustained in their slaves by the emancipation proclamation. If they do not thus feel, especially in regard to the value received for the Code Commission labors, it is not our fault, nor that of the Commissioners, either.

STATE CONVENTION.

We have received several letters and communications upon the subject of calling a Democratic and Conservative Convention this Spring. There is as yet but one correspondent calling for a Convention; all others give reasons why a Convention is thought to be unnecessary.

In our recent trip to the mountains, we did not talk with the first man who thought it best to hold a State Convention. One said it was an unnecessary tax upon delegates who had been hard up to raise the taxes demanded by the Sheriffs. Another, that the people were sufficiently united; the line was clearly drawn, it was, the plundered on one side and the plunderers on the other.

We shall be glad to hear from our friends from all sections of the State as to whether we shall hold a Convention or not.

The political acts and history of Gov. Holden, his treachery and hypocrisy, with his betrayal of every friend, cause and party, make it absolutely certain that he cannot lead successfully any party who value truth and consistency.

He has been crazy for six months to form a new party; he has failed, signally failed in this. His present game is to keep up the war between the two secret societies, and thus make bad blood between the black and the white races.

Within the last twelve months we have visited different portions of the State, from the sea shore to the mountains. We have never see a more united people, or a people more interested in putting the seal of their disapproval upon an administration which takes no pains even to conceal its deformities and corruptions.

We are sure the people of the State are ready, without the aid of a State Convention, to rebuke the present State administration. If, however, a Convention is deemed best, let our friends signify as much through the papers, or primary meeting in the various counties. The appearance in large force of the banned and excluded, in this city, cursed of Littlefield, carpet baggers and the "Ring," would do the heart of us good and give us spirit and courage for the coming campaign.

EVIL, PROPHECIES.

"In conclusion, we call attention to the following remarks: That the present management of the SENTINEL must shortly pass away. The reckless course which that paper has pursued and is now pursuing, and for which there is no other remedy outside an entire reform, will make the change necessary. So far as we are concerned, it will be a matter of little moment to us, but for the good name of the State and the cause of peace, when it does come to pass, we shall esteem it as a deed well done."—Standard.

Last year the Standard gave the SENTINEL only sixty days to live, and one of the Governor's pet friends, in a grog shop, boldly proclaimed that the Editor of the SENTINEL would be killed in three months. Ten days ago one of the Governor's Justices of the Peace predicted we would be burnt out. When the mob assailed us, the Governor approved it, he even defied the Court and refused to hold his peace when ordered.

The Standard has as many lives as a cat; but there are only three lives left for it. It died as the Governor's paper; it died as Holden and Cannon's; it died as W. W. Holden and Son's; it died as N. Paige & Co.'s; it died as J. B. Neathery & Co.'s; it died as Littlefield and Pike's, and now it lives as W. A. Smith & Co's.

We have our office insured, so burn on! We have our life insured, shoot on! for we are sworn not to look in silence upon public robbery, at the hazard of life. If we have not dragged the thieves to justice, we have held them up to the gaze of an indignant people; we expect to continue in the good work, denouncing whoever may protect them in their villainy or partake of their plunder.

The SENTINEL is not a money making institution; every man in it is working for less than he ought to have, and for less than the former Editor paid, but they work cheerfully, knowing there is a better day coming.

With the patronage and present support given by the people, and not by the Government, or Bankrupt Courts, the SENTINEL can run until the Standard lives out its other three lives. Be easy, Joseph, we have a long time to live, yet, and when we are planted like the dragon's teeth, there will arise armed men from the spot where we may go down—armed with the weapons of truth and right, to perfect the work that we have, though, perhaps feebly, begun.

If you mean by the threat above, to bring the bayonet and the sword to put us down, we don't believe you can do it; if you mean that public opinion is to do the work, why we know how that is. Our daily increasing subscription lists attest the extent to which public opinion is enlisted in the matter.

"THE RESULT.—Shall W. W. Holden or the honest Republicans of North Carolina rule the State?" This is a query propounded by the Rutherford Star, in the caption of the leading editorial this week. This is a question for the people to settle, and there is a slight probability that they may conclude that neither of the parties named shall be burdened with the responsibility, after another election. The "people" have had about as much of the rule of W. W. Holden and the "honest Republicans," as they care to pay for in the present condition of public and private finances, and it is likely they will prefer rulers of another stripe next time.

But let the Star bear and remember this: he can't get a Republican administration in this State that has no Holden in it; Holden would kill it and make it alive and kill it again a dozen times first.

We insert the following explanatory card of Mr. Gunter of Chatham, and commend the sentiments it contains to the consideration of those who have accepted appointments under Holden to execute the provisions of the bill alluded to:

RALEIGH, March 16, 1870.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.:

DEAR SIR—I am one of those who voted against the "Shoffner war bill," and would not, under any consideration accept of a commission under the operation of that act. I am tired of war.

Yours &c.,

W. T. GUNTER.

"Impecunious Importations," is the name given by a Southern exchange to that horde of adventurers to that region, known in other localities as "carpet-baggers."

John P. Sampson, colored, the Star thinks, will be a candidate for Congress from the Wilmington district, at the next election.

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, March 7, 1870.

By virtue of authority vested in me by the Constitution of the State, and by virtue of an act passed at the present session of the General Assembly, entitled "An act to secure the better protection of life and property," ratified the 29th day of January, 1870, and for the reason that the civil authorities of the county of Alamance are not able to protect the citizens of said county in the enjoyment of life and property, I hereby proclaim and declare that the county of Alamance is in a state of insurrection.

On the 26th of November 1869, a citizen of the United States, who was engaged in teaching a school in said county, was taken from his house by a band of men armed and disguised, and was, by them, cruelly beaten and scourged.

On the night of the 26th of February, 1870, a citizen of said county was taken from his house by a band of men, armed and disguised, and was, by them, hanged by the neck until he was dead on the Public Square in the town of Graham, near the Court House. And more recently the Postmaster at Company Shops, in said county, an officer of the Government of the United states, was compelled to flee from his county for protection, and while absent, a band of men armed and disguised visited his home with the purpose, doubtless, of taking his life; and this within a short distance of Federal troops stationed in said county, not to oversawe or intimidate good citizens, but to preserve the peace and to protect the innocent and the law-abiding. In addition to these cases, information has been received at the department that peaceable and law-abiding citizens of the county aforesaid have been molested in their houses, have been whipped, shot, scourged, and threatened with further visitations of violence and outrage unless they would conform to some arbitrary standard of conduct set up by these disguised assassins and murderers.

I have issued proclamation after proclamation to the people of the State, warning off lolers and wicked or misguided violators of the law to cease their evil deeds, and, by leading better lives, propitiate those whose duty it is to enforce the law. I have invoked public opinion to aid me in repressing these outrages and in preserving peace and order. I have waited to see if the people of Alamance would assemble in public meeting and express their condemnation of such conduct by a portion of the citizens of the county, but I have waited in vain. No meeting of the kind has been held. No expression of disapproval even, of such conduct by the great body of the citizens has yet reached this department; but on the contrary, it is believed that the lives of citizens who have reported these crimes to the Executive have been thereby endangered, and it is further believed that many of the citizens of the county are so terrified that they dare not complain, or attempt the arrest of criminals in their midst. The civil officers of the county are silent and powerless.

The laws must be maintained. These laws are over all. Every citizen, of whatsoever party or color, must be absolutely free to express his political opinion, and must be safe in his own house. These outrages and these violations of law must and SHALL cease. Criminals must and SHALL be brought to justice. The whole power of both governments, State and Federal, is pledged to this; and this power will be exerted. Criminals who may escape to counties adjoining Alamance will be pursued, and if not delivered up by the civil authorities of said counties, or if sheltered or protected in said counties, with the knowledge of the civil authorities, the said counties will also be declared to be in a state of insurrection.

I earnestly appeal to all good citizens to aid the civil authorities in maintaining peace and good order, and to support me in my purpose to protect life and property without regard to party or color.

Done at the city of Raleigh this 7th day of March, 1870, and in the 94th year of our independence.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1870.

☞ THEO. N. HARRAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

GOING OFF LIKE HOT CAKES.—Mr. J. J. Lewis, who has established a fish stand at Mr. Weather' store, opposite the Post Office, has been selling off his fish with remarkable success, at cheap prices. He will have another lot, fresh and nice, this morning.

THE Tremaines and Pierson open at Tucker Hall to night, remember. They have been here before and have been greeted by large crowds of delighted auditors. Those who have not heard their excellent music would do well to avail themselves of this opportunity; those who have heard them before need no invitation.

COMING EVENTS CAST THEIR SHADOWS BEFORE.—The pile of boxes in front of Creech's, yesterday, show that he has been busy since he went on North. Little boxes and big ones; long boxes and square ones; light boxes and heavy ones, all piled up, is evidence that he has some of all sorts of goods, coarse and fine, staple and fancy.—But all this is nothing to what is coming.

PERSONAL.—We had a call yesterday from our friend, Col. Wharton J. Green, of Warren. We regret to learn, as we did from the Colonel, that he is making arrangements to leave our State for a real dence in Baltimore. The change will be to his county and to the State, the loss of a noble and public spirited citizen.

We also had a call from Steven D. Pool Esq., so well and favorably known by his connection with the newspaper press of the State, now connected with the Newbern Journal of Commerce. He was looking well and stout, as if he would be able to wage excellent warfare in the coming campaign.

OATES' BURLESQUE AND OPERATIC TROUPE.—This popular company will give exhibitions at Tucker Hall, on Monday and Tuesday evenings next. Our Southern exchanges speak in the highest terms of the company, who are now returning from a Southern tour, having just closed an engagement in Wilmington. The Journal speaks thuswise of this Company:

THE OATES BURLESQUE OPERA TROUPE At the Theatre last night were inaugurated a series of delightful representations. The Oates Troupe on their first appearance have fairly taken the hearts of our people by storm. It is certainly beyond comparison the best appointed and most completely satisfactory in its peculiar line that has ever appeared upon Wilmington boards. Though at the rise of the curtain there was a disposition to take the company on trial, as it were, not fifteen minutes had elapsed before the piquant attractions of the charming prima donna and her brilliant band of followers had established success. The house, too, was a good one, which is saying a great deal for this season.

The "Field of the Cloth of Gold" was the piece selected for the first appearance of the troupe here. It is a burlesque, or musical extravaganza, founded upon a visit of Henry VIII. of England, to Francis I, of France and their meeting in the Valley of Arden in 1536—but history is so completely outraged, and all the staid proprieties so completely upset, that one laughs at the absurd comicalities in spite of oneself. We were charmed with the whole entertainment and felt completely carried away by the bewitching blondes of the troupe. The voices of the ladies are tolerably fair, and while of no special merit in solos are harmonious and effective in chorus. In this of course we except Mrs. Oates, the charming little nightingale who leads the company, whose voice possesses real compass and infinite sweetness, and is used with such a winning way and magical effect as never to fail to call for an encore. In impersonating "Lord Darnley," Mrs. Oates was bewitchingly charming in her acting, and presented such grace and symmetry of figure and a face of such enchanting beauty as to at once carry everything by storm. Her execution of the song of "Good Bye Sweetheart, Good Bye," was such as few have heard excelled upon the boards where standard operas are produced.

The acting by the other members of the troupe was good. Mr. Charleson, who impersonated "Francis I," though a young man is quite a promising actor. He possesses a good baritone voice which he uses to advantage. The charming Mrs. Hayden, a most an exact counterpart of her sister, Mrs. Oates, in appearance, took the character of the "Duke of Suffolk." Mr. Allen does the heavy business, "Queen Catharine," in the Bishop line, and does it well, too. The other members of the company are almost too numerous for mention here. Mr. Hernandez, the contortionist, found much favor with the audience, while Mr. Thorpe as blustering "King Hal," looked and acted his part. The take off on the Japanese was one of the most ludicrous and laughable scenes we have ever witnessed.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.—The Tarboro Carolinian threatens to come out for Women's Right's and female suffrage, before long. We should not be surprised if "to that complexion we must (all) come at last."

This is "Saint Patrick's Day in the Morning," a day dear to Irishmen, and its anniversary will be observed "wherever there are enough Irishmen to come together."

THE Reconstructed Farmer for the month is on our table. As usual it abounds in seasonable hints and useful information for farmers and families, and for all householders. Price $2 per annum, address, Messrs. Thigpen & Dancey, Tarborough.

The Peak Family Swiss Bell Ringers are in Galveston Texas, but will gradually make their way Northward, as the summer advances.

JUST OUT.—Cherry Pectoral Troches, superior to all others, for Colds, Coughs, Sore Throats, Bronchitis and Horseness. None so pleasant, none cure so quick.

199.—Persons passing the Court House in this city will see large placards posted to the pillars, signed "T. P. Lee, Sheriff," the said placards announcing that, on the 16th day of April next, he will sell, at the Court House door, in the city of Raleigh, the lands or town lots of one hundred and ninety nine citizens of Wake county, for taxes.

One hundred and ninety nine persons in Wake county, who have not settled up their taxes! Does any one believe that this large number of tax payers are in arrears because they would not pay? Is it not rather because they could not?

But Sheriff Lee is not to blame for it, except in so far as he gave his aid and influence to to the party that laid this onerous burden upon the people. The majority of that body now sitting at the Capitol—the Radical Legislature, at $7 per day,—laid the tax, and then spent it, with precious little benefit to the State, the county, or any one else, but themselves and party favorites.

Let the people whose lands and homes are posted for sale to raise taxes for a wasteful and profligate administration, remember at the next election, who the men are that have brought this thing upon them; from the Governor who sanctioned it, down to Farris, the keeper of the Capitol, who spent hundreds on hundreds of dollars on the Capitol Square, and then didn't give the State any of the hay!

ANNIVERSARY.—We have received an invitation to be present at the anniversary celebration of the Jefferson Society of the University of Virginia, on Tuesday, April 19th, at 8 o'clock, P. M., P. F. Pescud of Raleigh, President, W. Campbell Hamilton, of Maryland, Orator, and F. E. Patrick, of Virginia, Reader. Our young North Carolina friends in the University whose compliments attend the invitation, will please accept our thanks.

SPECIAL MENTION.—It is with more than ordinary interest that we invite the attention of our friends to the advertisement of the "GREAT HENDERSON CO. KY. SCHEME," which we give a prominent position in our columns to day. This is not one of the petty "gift" or "lottery" affairs which dishonest rascals so often attempt to palm off upon unsuspecting people, but a straight-forward and legitimate enterprise, with a regular charter from the Legislature of Kentucky, and the full approval of all prominent officials and leading citizens in the State. We do not believe, that any one so inclined, will ever have a more favorable opportunity to invest five dollars more satisfactory than in this Scheme.

PERPETUAL CALENDAR.—Mr. S. D. Pool, the proprietor, has laid our table a "perpetual calendar, for finding dates and the Dominical letter for each year, from the year 1 to the year 4 000," by both the old and new style. It consists of very ingeniously arranged tables, with plain directions, and will prove valuable as a chronological assistant to any one who may wish to refer to past or future dates.

This calendar was invented and patented by James Rumley, Esq., of Beaufort, N. C. and is for sale by Mr Pool, price 50 cents. It is recommended by a number of the first scholars of the country and by many of the leading journals.

MUSICAL CONVENTION.—We learn that a number of persons from a distance design attending the Musical Convention, to be held in this city, commencing next Tuesday night, the 22nd inst. The gentlemen who have this matter in charge are making arrangements with the Railroads for half tickets, and with the Hotels and Boarding houses for reduced rates of board.

We hope that Wilmington, our "city by the sea" will send a large representation from her Philharmonic Association, who have been giving those excellent concerts there lately. Persons who intend to come are requested to communicate with Mr. J. A. Jones, Raleigh.

STRANGE IF TRUE.—A private letter to a gentleman now in this city, states that a woman in Rowan county, recently gave birth to six animals resembling puppies in general appearance, except that they have but two legs and two feet each. They have long ears and other features of a dog. The letter states that they are still living and have been seen by several persons.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Revenue to-day $156,000.

The Reconstruction Committee has agreed on the Texas bill; it is similar to that for Mississippi. The Texas Congressional delegation visited the President to-day.

The Senate Committee on Commerce agreed to report adversely on the bill to establish ports of entry at various points on the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers.

The Senate confirmed the following persons to be Ministers Residents: Chas. H. Lewis, of Va., to Portugal; Jas. H. Jones, of Ill., to Belgium; C. C. Andrews to Stockholm and R. C. Kirk, of Ohio, to Uraguay.

The President, to-day replied to a resolution of the Senate, by enclosing a communication from the Secretary of State, who gives the names of thirty states reported as having ratified the 5th amendment, including New York, Indiana, Texas and Georgia. He adds, he does not assume to anticipate the action of Congress in defining the condition or relation of any State to the federal government, he merely presents a list of resolutions of the States purporting to ratify the proposed amendment, of which none has been transmitted to the Department of State, with the dates of their respective adoption.

The House debated at length whether to refer the funding bill to the Banking and Currency Committee or to the Ways and Means Committee. The bill was finally referred to the latter.

Butler reported a bill for the admission of Texas, stating that it was identical with the Virginia and Mississippi bills, with the exception of one additional provision, that its passage shall not affect the conditions under which Tex as was originally admitted. In response to an additional proviso, offered by Wood, that the state be admitted without qualification, except as stated in the bill. Butler said he had no objection except that was useless.

Bock also offered a substitute for the bill, reciting that Texas has a Constitution republican in form, and is entitled to representation, &c.—Both Wood's and Bock's amendments were rejected by a party vote and the bill then passed.

The deficiency bill was taken up and discussed. During the discussion, Farnsworth said that two of the granite contractors for the Charleston Custom House and the Treasury extension, were two men who had contracts in connection with the New York Post Office, Messrs. Larned and Dixon, and remarked that they again had arms allowed in the Treasury. Without disposing of the bill the House took a recess until 7 o'clock.

SENATE.—The Quakers want money to carry out their Indian views. Sumner wants an appropriation for a mixed College at Xanis, Ohio. The Judiciary Committee were directed to report regarding the status of the Indians under the 15th amendment. A resolution for a Joint Indian Committee was defeated by the casting vote of Colfax.

The Georgia bill was resumed and an amendment offered authorizing the President to send troops into states to suppress disorders, and the Senate adjourned.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Notice! Notice! Notice! Notice!

HAVING seen by the Standard and Sentinel of 5th, that the Yarborough House is advertised as the only first class Hotel, we wish to call the attention of the travelling public to two or three facts:

It is well known that the National Hotel is now and was furnished by J. M. Blair, who gave us this notice extraordinary of the Yarborough House,) regardless of expense, only this past Fall, but it was done when he expected to be the Proprietor and retain this as he expressed it, for his first class boarders, and send his second class to the Yarborough. The trouble was he had to go there himself.

To do justice to the owners of this property, my customers and myself, I will say that for the public rightly give the house a clean and they will say Carpenter, cleaner, better kept house can be found in the South or North.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES B. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

Pianos for Sale! Pianos for Sale.

MR. WILLIAM H. VAUGHAN, WELL known in our community as a Musician and Piano Tuner, is now appointed Agent for those splendid, Seven Octave, fine Rose Wood Pianos, built by C. M. Tremaine & Bro. These Pianos will be warranted for six years, and Mr. Vaughan is here ready to keep the instrument in perfect tune, if it should need it. He has at this time one of the Pianos at his residence, on Cabarrus Street, a little East of the N. C. R. R. Depot, and would be glad to show it to any one who will call to see it.

These instruments took the premium at the Virginia State Fair, and without doubt are the best and cheapest instruments in the North or South

Old Pianos taken in exchange for new ones, at a fair price. As I am confident that I can sell cheaper than anybody else, I beg of my own people in the State to give me a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Piano tuning and Repairing done at shortest notice. Can make an old Piano as good almost as new, for a very low sum.

Address,
W. H. VAUGHAN,
mar 9-tf Box 200, Raleigh.

IT WILL BE REMEMBERED THAT THE Messrs. Tremaine Bro's. took the first premium at the Virginia State Fair on their celebrated Pianos. These gentlemen fully understand their business, being thorough musicians themselves. Call at the Store of E. VIA, 26, Fayetteville Street and examine one of the finest they have ever made.
